20. [redacted] In connection with his call of yesterday to Mr. Thuermer's office, Bill Raifford, Library of Congress, returned my call (see Item #6, 9 January 75) and I told him that the Agency, by law, does not publish overall figures for budget, personnel, etc., but we do, in connection with the Affirmative Action Program of EEO, give certain percentages. 22. [redacted] Talked briefly with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, about the list of witnesses that Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, and Bill Hogan, of the Committee staff, had requested and the list of briefings and contacts with members and staff over the past four years. Slatinshek asked me to give these to Hogan. I subsequently saw Hogan and gave him a list of witnesses which included only the Director, the four Deputies, the IG and the General Counsel. The names of a number of other witnesses were mentioned but I indicated the Agency would prefer to limit its submission of suggested witnesses to those I have just mentioned.
